

wombat

housing and support services

ABN 198 234 598 21

phone: 8327 2222 or 1800 887775

wombat@wombat.org.au

fax: 8327 2299

Juvenile Justice Program

Who the JJ Pathways Program is for:

- Young people aged 17 to 23 years and
- At risk of becoming homeless and
- Exiting Juvenile Justice centres on parole

What is provided:

- Intensive support and assistance to:
 - » Develop skills for independent living
 - » Formulate goals
 - » Obtain longer term housing
- Transitional housing
 - » For 6 –12 months
 - » All properties provided with household goods and bedding
 - » All properties are close to public transport
 - » Rent is set at 25% of income ($15 under 18 years)

What is the purpose:

The program is designed to facilitate a smooth transition from Juvenile Justice Centres into the community. Its purpose is:

- To assist young people to develop the skills needed to manage independent living and
- To reduce the likelihood of future homelessness or re-offending

Who is eligible:

- Young people aged 17 to 23 years
- At risk of homelessness
- Exiting Juvenile Justice centres on parole
- Willing to participate in the support program
- Needing to develop living skills
- In receipt of an independent income
- Capacity to live with outreach support
- Want to live in the West

What it involves:

- Support meetings and phone contact with the support worker
- A commitment to participation in the program
- Maintaining tenancy of transitional housing property

How to get into the program:

- Referrals are received from Western Juvenile Justice Unit

For more information contact 8327 2222 or email mark@wombat.org.au, raymond@wombat.org.au or tess@wombat.org.au